

PENTECOST SUNDAY

HOLY ROSARY PARISH TORONTO, ONTARIO Pentecost Sunday

A REPORT FROM YOUR PARISH COUNCIL

Parish committee members held a retreat/workshop last weekend. Out of their prayer and discussion two major themes for parish revitalization emerged.

SPIRITUAL: Evangelization, of course, is the primary goal of all our activities. It was felt that a major hindrance to achieving it was the difficulty in communicating effectively among the numerous groups and individuals that make up our community.

PHYSICAL: This discussion centred on the future of the parish hall. (See the important announcement about the hall elsewhere in this bulletin.) The effects of the financial crisis were also noted, as well as a need to involve more parishioners in the many committees and service groups active the parish.

More information will follow in the fall.

CAUTION

The lobby at the main door to the church will be undergoing repairs from 1 – 5 June. Parishioners attending weekday Masses may at times have to use another entrance.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The major topic of the meeting will be the future of our parish hall. One plan is to restore the current facility, at considerable cost. Another possibility is under consideration, namely, to replace the present hall with a high-rise apartment building that would provide space for parish use as well as for a number of residents. This use of the property would actually generate income for the parish. Mr. Thomas Payne of KPBM Architects will attend the meeting to describe the second of these alternatives and to answer any questions that you may have. Please plan to attend.

PARISH PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS

The Rosary Apostolate led by Sister Marilina is a non-profit program where volunteers lead children in the Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This program can commence in your parish, involving children's ages 6-12 and/or 13-18. The Rosary Apostolate currently seeks volunteers for both programs. Contact Fr. Chui or call Natalie Orenchuk at 647-201-2150 or 416-480-2150; visit us at www.rosaryapostolate.com.
