NEW PRIEST IN RESIDENCE AT HOLY ROSARY

Father Joe Walsh will be taking up residence at Holy Rosary in mid-July. He sent this brief autobiographical note to introduce himself to the parishioners.

Father Joe Walsh grew up in Toronto attending nearby Saint Peter's School and Saint Michael's College School (as well as Saint Anselm's School). He began his Basilian journey in August, 1954 and was ordained in 1964. He graduated with a BA from Saint Michael's College in the University of Toronto. Father Joe taught in Catholic high schools in Ontario for twenty-six years and has been in the parish apostolate since July 1990, both full-time and for the last few years (since he became a senior citizen) part-time. He was a pastor for seven years in Lethbridge, Alberta, and for the last eight years has lived in Calgary with other Basilians, working part-time in a number of parishes. He feels that it is a good time to come home.

Ideas

What does Scripture mean when it says that "The Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom?" H.A. Nielsen seeks an answer to this question in the book of Job.
