COLOMBIAN CRAFTS AND JEWELRY SALE

On Coffee Sunday, Dec. 6 there will be a table with beautiful art, crafts, jewellery and hammocks from Colombia. The jewellery includes necklaces, earrings and rings that are hand made from "tagua," also known as "vegetable ivory." A tree that grows in the tropical regions of Colombia, Panama and Ecuador produces the tagua nuts. Artisans have been carving tagua nuts for more than 200 years. The grain is very hard and resembles ivory. Tagua nuts are non-toxic. Proceeds will go to help Colombian persons in need.

OFFICE OF CATHOLIC YOUTH

The Office of Catholic Youth is inviting all youth and young adults to attend an Advent Reconciliation with His Grace, Archbishop Thomas Collins, on Friday, November 27 at 8 p.m. at St. Basil's Church. More information may be found at www.ocytoronto.org.

KENYA PROJECT UPDATE

During the past four years, Holy Rosary's Orphan Sponsorship program has grown to 135 HIV/AIDS orphans sponsored by generous Holy Rosary parishioners in our sister parish of Embulbul, Kenya. On the first Sunday of Advent we will be inviting existing sponsors to renew and new sponsors to join for 2010. We will hope to mail out updated pictures to existing sponsors in late November. Full sponsorships are $240/year; co-sponsorship is $120/year, whereby we match up two parishioners to sponsor one child. Any questions can be directed to Steve MacMillan – stevenmacmillan@rogers.com – or leave your number with the parish office for a return call. Thank you to all of Holy Rosary for making this project a success.

OPPOSE BILL C-384

Private Members' Bill C-384 is being debated in the House of Commons. If passed, this dangerous pro-euthanasia and pro-assisted suicide bill would allow for the untimely deaths of vulnerable Canadians who need caring not killing. Contact Members of Parliament and tell them to oppose Bill C-384. Email all MPs in just one simple step by visiting <http://www.ContactMPs.com>.

THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
