HOMEWORK CLUB

Holy Rosary's Homework Club starts up again on Monday, September 27, 2010. Homework Club runs on Mondays from 7:00-8:00 p.m. and provides one-on-one and small group tutoring for students aged 6-14. It's free; but please let us know you will be coming by emailing holyrosaryhomeworkclub@hotmail.ca or calling Natalie de Paulsen at 647-770-6131. We look forward to seeing tutors and students again and to welcoming new members. See the poster at the back of the church for more information.

R.C.I.A.: THE RESTORED CATECHUMENATE FOR THE INITIATION OF ADULTS

At 7 p.m. on Thursdays Father Callam will be presenting a series of talks on Catholicism. They are primarily for non-Catholics who are interested in the Church and are open to the possibility of being received at the Easter Vigil next spring, but there are others who might wish to attend: Catholics who have been baptized but not confirmed; Catholics who wish to broaden their understanding of the faith; someone who is merely curious about Catholicism as a significant religious phenomenon. The first meeting will take place on September 16 in the parish hall. You may register by telephoning the office at 416-923-8471 or by E-mail: callam@holyrosary.ca. Or you may simply join us unannounced on September 16. Come along and bring a friend!

The wheelchair-accessible door will not be in use until further notice. It is being repaired.

"The Fires of Faith"

Ideas

IDEAS resumes this week with Father Callam's review of Eamon Duffy's recent book, The Fires of Faith, which describes the efforts of Queen Mary I of England (1544-1548) and her cousin Cardinal Reginald Pole, Archbishop of Canterbury, to restore Catholicism to England after the onslaught against the Church by Henry VIII, which had continued under the child king, Edward VI. VISIT FROM FR. FABIAN
OF OUR SISTER PARISH

Fr. Fabian of our sister parish of Embulbul, Kenya will be visiting Holy Rosary in September. He will be speaking at Masses on Sunday, September 12. All parishioners are invited to join Fr. Fabian for coffee, kindly hosted by Development and Peace, following each Mass. You can email Steve MacMillan at stevemacmillan@rogers.com if you have any questions or comments, or ask the parish office to have someone get in touch with you.

HUMANITARIAN FLOOD RELIEF FOR PAKISTAN

ShareLife is accepting donations to help victims of this natural disaster. Funds collected will be forwarded to Caritas, which has already provided emergency relief to 1,300 families in two districts in the province of Punjab. In the next two weeks, it will be distributing water, food, cooking utensils, health and hygiene kits, mosquito nets and water purification tablets to some 3,000 households. As the effects of the flooding emerge, Caritas will continue to respond to the situation with further emergency relief programs. Please use the ShareLife envelopes provided at the Church entrances. Thank you for your generous service to people.

BUNDLE UP COLLECTION OCTOBER 9 – 10, 2010

The collection will take place at Holy Rosary Parish, 354 St. Clair Ave. W. They are in need of men's, women's, children's, and baby clothing, household goods, toys, accessories, drapes, bedding and shoes.

ROSARY APOSTOLATE IN THE SCHOOLS

The Rosary Apostolate in the schools is seeking volunteers (male or female) who have devotion to the Mother of God and who are willing to visit our elementary schools to pray the Rosary with the children once a month. Training will be provided. If you are interested, please contact: Ann E. Rooney at 416-769-9749 or Lorraine Ostafew at 416-766-8929.
